Topics covered include:

- Introduction to the personal auto policy
- Personal auto policy definitions and liability coverage
- Medical payments/personal injury protection
- Uninsured/underinsured motorists coverage
- Coverage for damage to your auto
- Coverage for a rented vehicle

Who Should Attend?

The CISR Program is designed to serve the practical needs of customer service representatives, newly licensed producers, company personnel and any others who wish to refresh their product knowledge.

All times are assumed CST unless otherwise noted.

ADA/Dietary Requests

We work hard to make our programs accessible to all. If you need accommodations, simply call MAIA at 573-893-4301 or email maia@moagent.org.

Please notify us in advance if you have special dietary requirements.

Cancellation Policy

You will not receive a refund or transfer credit if you do not notify us before the start of the event. All cancellations and transfers must be received in writing. Refunds: a 90 percent refund applies if cancelling more than two weeks prior to start of event; 75 percent refund if cancelling fewer than two weeks before the event. Transfers: a $15 transfer fee will be assessed on any CISR or one-day seminar transfer made within two weeks of the program. Transfers may only be made to another MAIA course. Student must indicate a transfer course within two weeks of cancellation, or appropriate percentage of tuition will be refunded.

Continuing Education

These courses are each approved for seven hours property-casualty continuing education credits in Missouri. Contact The National Alliance at alliance@scic.com for CE credits for other states.

Earning the CISR Designation

Participants must attend and pass five of the following nine courses (in any order, over a three-year period):
